URGES CONTRACT LABOR ON HIGHWAYS

COLUMBUS LAWYER ASKS AUTO CLUB TO BACK HIS POLICIES

Says Brick Roads Can be Constructed at Practically Same Price as Gravel Roads—Advocates Abolition of Assessment Plan and Would Have Entire Cost Paid by the State.

A campaign advocating employment of prisoners at Ohio penitentiary to build roads, and extension of state-owned brick plants, stone quarries and gravel pits operated by prison labor to provide cheap road materials will be inaugurated at the annual meeting of Ohio State Automobile association in May.

C. D. Saviers, senior attorney for Columbus Automobile club, said Thursday he is preparing a resolution embodying these policies, to be submitted to the convention.

If adopted it will be the answer of the automobile associations to the demand for more taxes with which to build roads and especially to the demand for a gasoline tax to finance road construction, Saviers said.

He believes that in this manner permanent roads could be constructed at practically the same price now paid for gravel highways.

He also advocates abolition of the assessment plan for road building with the entire cost paid by the state.

"The road contractors and materials people have devised the gas tax and will ask for further taxes for their own gain," he asserted.

"They have gone beyond the limits of the best interests of the state and the people and think only of themselves. I anticipate the greatest opposition to this plan will come from this source.

"They appear to think only of themselves and will stifle any attempt to obtain good roads unless they get to cut the melon.

"A constantly increasing amount of taxes is asked for road construction. This plan would enable taxes for roads to be reduced and would insure construction of roads.

"In addition it would provide employment for prisoners forced to remain day after day in the idle house at the penitentiary, supported by the taxpayers.

"If the farmers of Ohio are sincere in their desire for good roads this is the method by which they can get them.

"I believe the automobile clubs should adopt the idea and wage a vigorous campaign to popularize it during the next two years. They would then be in shape to go before the next state legislature with a concrete solution for the road cost problem.

"If no such solution is offered it is certain there will be other roadbuilding plans advanced requiring large sums of money and further taxation.

"I think that prison labor offers the real solution for the road cost problem and there are many others who will support the idea at the Automobile Club convention."

BROTHERHOOD OF LUTHERAN CHURCH MET

Interesting Debate Won by Negative—Next Session March 19.

The Trinity, Lutheran Brotherhood met Thursday evening in regular session in the social rooms of the church and the attendance was very good. After the usual business, Chairman Daniel Eitel Sr., and his nine assistants served a buffet lunch of baked ham, brick cheese sandwiches and coffee. The meeting was again called to order and the Brotherhood joined in the singing of several songs. William H. Leist Jr., had charge of the music with Carl F. Seitz at the piano.

The question for debate was: "Resolved, that a Health Certificate Should be Required before a Marriage License is Granted." The debaters for the affirmative were: L. E. Goeller, Dr. Carl Ritz and J. L. Heise and for the negative were J. R. Noecker, Harry W. Heffner and Frank Gordon.

The judges were Dr. C. E. Bowers, Charles L. Mack and J. D. Hummel. The decision of the judges resulted in two votes for the negative and one for the affirmative.

After the decision a general discussion was had which resulted in bringing out much good thought. The meeting was one of the most interesting of the year.

The next regular session will be held on March 19 and will be an evening for the muses—a contest between the McGuffeyites and the modernists.

STEAM ROADS TO ELECTRIFY PROPERTIES

Entire System of N. & W. to be Changed in a Few Years.

The Van Swearingen interests at Cleveland and the Norfolk and Western Railway company are said to be greatly interested in a bill passed Wednesday by the house of representatives that would provide methods whereby they could electrify their railroad properties. The bill gives the utilities commission power to provide regulations for electrification of steam roads. There is no present law governing the subject.

The measure is required by the Van Swearingen interests to aid them in carrying out their plans for a new central terminal station in Cleveland as under their franchise with the city roads entering the new station must be electrified within five years after the new station is ready for use.

The Norfolk and Western Co., is understood to be preparing to electrify its entire system within the state during the next few years. Electrification already has been completed in several West Virginia divisions.

The bill, sponsored by Representative Harry E. Davis of Cleveland now goes to the senate.

THIS PAPER WILL HAVE SERIES BY IRVIN COBB

The famous Irvin S. Cobb, in the opinion of many people the best story teller of our time, has compiled a remarkable series of short, humorous stories which he has heard. They will appear under Mr. Cobb's name with the title, "My Favorite Stories," and are soon to begin in this paper. Watch for them and read them, because you never encountered such a collection of funny stories in your life. Speaking of anecdotes, Mr. Cobb says: "Americans did not invent or discover the short humorous story. Indeed, some short stories still are making the rounds which were old when the Pyramids were young. Probably the piper who piped before Moses rounded out his act with one of the standard jokes of the period—a joke which, dressed in new clothes, is doing duty somewhere today. The mother-in-law joke could not have originated with Adam because Adam had no mother-in-law, but I have not the slightest doubt that Cain began using it after his marriage. And beyond peradventure Father Noah whiled away many a dragging half-hour in the Ark by telling Shem, Ham and Japhet the one which begins: 'It seems there were two Irishmen named Pat and Mike. And Pat said to Mike, 'Faith, an' be jabbers!'"
"So it would not do for us to lay claim to the sole responsibility for the short humorous story. But I am quite certain that we, more than any other people, have made it a part of our daily life. Americans of whatsoever rank like to tell short stories and like to laugh at them. There are short stories which sum up the characteristics of white Americans or black Americans, Jews or Gentiles, city folk or country folk more completely than could ponderous essays or scholarly expositions. It is of record that Abraham Lincoln, in the darkest days of this Union, cured more than one crisis with some homely anecdote, some aptly barbed retort.
"In this series I have written, I have sought to choose those short stories which have made the greatest appeal to me. Some of them I heard years ago; others no longer ago than yesterday. I have tried to repeat them in the form in which they were uttered in my presence. I hope the reader may enjoy them as much as I have enjoyed the work of compiling the collection."

It's the Chicks You Raise That Pay You a Profit

Chicks that die mean lost profits whether they die in the shell or after they are hatched. That's why the first step toward bigger poultry profits lies in choosing the right incubators and brooders.

The most successful poultry raisers, as well as most county agents, and agricultural colleges recommend Buckeye Incubators and Brooders as the real money makers.

BARRERE & NICKERSON,
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO.

The time is passed when the measure of the value of a memorial is quantity. I hope the time has come when that measure is quality. I care not whether the material be marble or granite, its future will be measured by the character of the design. It is quality that has preserved for us the finest examples in painting and sculpture. It is quality that will stamp our imprint upon cemeteries of the future. Simplicity, correct lines and proportions and proper ornamentation are the real fundamentals. A design that is right, material that is lasting, and perfect workmanship, spells success for the future of this industry and the beautification of the cemetery. Will you let me help you select the memorial for your lot. Call at show room. NO AGENTS.

Governed by Opinions

The world is governed much more by opinion than by laws. It is not the judgment of individuals and masses of men, which is the chief wall of defense around property and life. With the progress of society, this power of opinion is taking the place of arms.—Channing.

England's Old Oaks

Several oak trees in England lay claim to being the oldest living specimens. It is known quite surely, however, that the Keston oak in Kent and the huge Newlands in Gloucestershire are each over one thousand years old.

THOS. D. HARMAN SENT CONGRATULATORY

Letters By Numerous Friends On Account of Birthday Anniversary.

Many congratulatory letters and telegrams were sent to Mr. Thomas D. Harman, publisher of The National Stockman, Pittsburgh, Penn., today, it being his birthday anniversary.

Included in the list was one from the Pumpkin Show committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Harman is a native son of old Pickaway, and in years gone by has always contributed to the success of Circleville's Pumpkin Shows by offering prizes in the different events of the big show. He has, we are sorry to say, been confined to his residence, 6378 Jackson street, Pittsburgh, on account of impaired health, but we understand that he is gradually recovering.

INAUGURATION
PHONE WIRES

San Francisco, March 4.—A picture taken today in Washington showing a messenger taking a bouquet of flowers to Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, was reproduced in the San Francisco Call a few hours later after having been transmitted by telegraph.

The transmission started at 7:49 a. m. and at 8 o'clock a. m. it had been developed and made ready for reproduction in the newspaper.

Soon afterward another picture of President Coolidge, Mrs. Coolidge and Senator Curtis leaving the White House also was published. The transmission was handled by the American Telephone and Telegraph and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The picture was clear in every particular and did not differ in any essential from one developed directly from the negative or plate.

GOVERNMENT

Has Line On Million Citizens Who Never Pay Income Tax.

"The mills of the gods grind slow, but they grind exceedingly fine." The same applies to Uncle Sam's treasury department, according to Walter Davenport, writing in this week's Liberty concerning the government's struggle to bring citizens to the mark with honest income tax returns.

"It would be interesting to set down here the number or even approximately the number of wage and salary earners who have never paid income taxes or who have skipped paying now and then," he says. "But it amounts to a million or so at least. It is estimated that the treasury department has from six to eight million salary reports from employers which have no corresponding tax return in Washington.

"In other words, the government has knowledge of between six and eight million salaries which have never been levied upon for taxes—which were never reported by the persons receiving these salaries. Thousands of those who earn less than two thousand dollars simply ignore the law and make no return.

"What are they going to do about it? Obviously the only thing to do is to hope that some day the treasury department will have caught up with its constantly mounting list of persons to be investigated. You must keep this in mind. The government is not a complete fool. Eventually it will catch up with the delinquents. Of course, in the meantime some of those in arrears will have died, vanished. What then? Figure it for yourself. You know as much about this phase of the subject as the experts do."

WID

Tells the Whys and Wherefores of the Movies.

No matter how perfectly the cutter may do his work in "timing" the final cutting of a movie, the operator in the projection booth of your theater can ruin the effect if he is careless. We get "motion" pictures by using a camera which photographs thirteen separate pictures a little larger than a special delivery stamp, one above the other on a foot of celluloid ribbon. A certain set speed is used in running this ribbon through the camera when the photographs are taken. In order to get the proper result on the screen the projection machine which throws light through this ribbon in the theater, and thereby "projects" the movie on the theater screen, should be run at the same speed at which the ribbon was originally photographed. Normal speed is close to fifteen minutes to a thousand feet, but today most theaters run nearer to twelve minutes per thousand foot reel, and so producers photograph accordingly.

In the bigger theaters all over the country today the projection machines are operated by motors, so that the speed of projection may be kept uniform. Certainly you remember the old days when the operator, turning the machine by hand with a crank, used to speed it or slow it according to his moods or how sleepy he might be.

Even with motor-driven projection machines the operator controls the speed of the picture. If you find that a movie has been "raced" or allowed to run so slow that it "flickers," report it to the theater manager. That means carelessness in the operating booth, and the manager wants to know it. He can only correct such things if you are good enough to report them to him. He cannot personally remain in the theater all the time to watch the speed of the movie on the screen.

Some day there will be automatic regulating devices installed on the projection machines to protect you fans against having your movies spoiled by carelessness in the projection booths of the theaters, but not until the producing bosses really come to realize the supreme importance of "cutting" will you be protected against fearfully assembled productions.

Today the cutter is the poorest paid, important worker in the movie industry. The bosses are only beginning to realize the cutter's importance. You see, in the theater, when a play needs changing or improvement it can be altered, cut or added to at any time during its years of existence. They do change plays constantly. With a movie, changes are rarely made after the negative has been matched with the first trial positive print and all of the hundreds of positive prints made and shipped over the country. Of course it would be physically possible to make the correction and send individual scenes all over the country to be inserted in the various positiveprint copies, but this is seldom done.

Generally the cutting and making of positive prints of a movie is done in a great rush. When the boss and director "OK" the edited "sample" print by which the negative is to be cut, they forget it and turn to the next production. Minor corrections are left to lesser employees and the laboratory workers. That explains why you frequently see apparently inexcusable blunders, misspelled words in titles, etc., in the finished product, the several hundred positive print copies which are called release prints. These are shipped over the country direct from the laboratory.

We do funny things in this movie business, but you must be patient and forgive us. We're very young yet. Gradually we're growing up.

Eagles and C. A. C. Will Play
a Three Game Series Next Thursday Night.

Basketball fans witnessed another of those fast games that have been prevailing at the club gym Thursday night, when the C. A. C. Quintet defeated Hoover Sweepers 22 to 14.

Getting off to what seemed a bad start but what in reality was the conservative method of the club team of feeling out their opponents. The club boys wound up the first half on the long end of a 14 to 9 score and kept gradually creeping up on the visitors throughout the remainder of the game.

As in previous games the club boys played a floor game hard to surpass. Each man doing his bit to pile up the score with Steele leading the field with ten points to his credit. Edwards at forward for the visitors secured nine of the visitors points and played a wonderful floor game and was the outstanding player on the visiting team.

Next Thursday night the basketball classic of Circleville will get under when the C. A. C. Eagles three game series starts on the C. A. C. floor. Circleville fans have been waiting for this series and it promises to be a hotly contested affair.

"The Bible does not promise immunity from adversity, nor does it offer any worldly material profit to the Christian. Its rewards are wholly spiritual. There is a disastrous attempt being made to show that a man who follows Christ becomes successful in business, lives in a fine house and lays by much money. It were better to invite men to sacrifice to the battlefield, to the loss of friends, of everything for Christ's sake."—Dr. Howard Kelley, Baltimore, Md.

x HARTMAN THEATER. x x x x x x x x x

"The Nervous Wreck" with Otto Kruger and Jean May will be the attraction at the Hartman theater, Columbus, for three days beginning Monday night, March 9, with a matinee on Wednesday. This is the Owen Davis farce comedy which played an entire season at the Sam Harris theater in New York last season, and is the author's ninety-second play and said to be his best. Mr. Davis mixed melodrama and mirth with lightning like changing in the twists and quirks. First you are in the midst of a dime novelish sort of banditry with several gunmen and all that and then you are hearing epigrams from a comic weekly. Mr. Kruger's supporting cast including Jean May is one of brilliance and excellence. If you enjoy a good laughing show don't fail to see "The Nervous Wreck."

"Parasites" with Francine Larrimore as the star, which Mr. Lee Shubert will present for three days, the last half of the week, starting Thursday, March 12, is a play of American social life with the action taking place in the social colony of Bar Harbor. The author is Cosmo Hamilton who wrote "Scandal" and many other popular New York successes.

The new play comes to Columbus direct from its engagement at the Princess theater, Chicago with one of the best supporting casts ever seen on the American stage. Miss Larrimore's support includes Cecil Humphreys, Theresa Maxwell Conover, Beatrice Swanson and many others. Direct from her triumph in the Rachel Crothers' comedy "Nide People" of two seasons ago, Miss Larrimore comes to "Parasites" with difficult task before her of creating a characterization new to the American stage. This is one of the most brilliant roles of Miss Larrimore's career. Matinee Saturday. Mail orders for both attractions will be accepted at any time.

PATRONIZE YOUR HOME MERCHANTS

Mail Order Houses Do Not Contribute to Upkeep of Community.

At the meeting of farmers and citizens held at the court house Thursday evening, called to boost the membership of the Farm Bureau organization some facts were brought to the attention of farmers, as well as citizens in reference to the bad habit of buying away from home.

One speaker who was a little more frank than the others and told how he had bought a dust pan in Columbus and paid seventy-five cents for the article. When he arrived home, he passed the store of Hamilton's and saw the same thing priced in the show window for 59 cents. That taught him a lesson. Hereafter, the speaker said he would first make inquiry at the home store before buying abroad.

Several years ago one of our citizens purchased an Eagle mop wringer in Parkersburg, West Virginia, and dragged the thing a hundred and twenty-five miles to his home, and as he passed a certain hardware store here he saw the article in a show window identically the same size, priced fifty cent less. He admits that he never looked for the article here, altho he passed this same store a dozen times weekly. The lesson the speaker wished to convey was, if you wish to build up your home town, be loyal to it and buy the little merchandise you need in your home town. Throw out the catalogs of the mail order houses, put the Bible back on the center table in the parlor in its old and honored location and push Sears-Roebuck aside. These catalogs have no business in the home. Farmers are sending thousands of dollars out to these mail order houses weekly, money sent out that never comes back. These mail order houses do not help pay taxes, or make your load lighter. Patronize your home merchants and they will patronize you. Build up your community and by doing so, you are helping yourselves.

Some of the nearby town mail order houses are sending you mail daily to come up to Columbus offering to extend to you credit. If your credit is good abroad, it is just as good at home. Did you ever try out your home merchant? Ask Jim or John, if you can have a little time on a purchase, don't be backward, he will take a chance. In these days we all get a little hard up and have to be advanced a little credit now and then. Merchants buy on credit, banks loan money on credit, you get your home newspaper on credit and the whole world hinges on the confidence we have in one another.

How much does the mail order house or the merchant out of town pay towards the upkeep of your school, church, roads or other county improvements? Every cent you send out or carry away to buy merchandise elsewhere, is like throwing it away. It is true, you get something in return but you are not doing your duty toward your home, your neighborhood or county. Keep it at home. Don't scatter it to the four winds.

London's Ice-Age Relics

Beds of fossil bones of hippopotamus, mammoth, aurochs, giant deer and other Ice-age species were found recently in London at Charing Cross, in the course of excavating for the construction of a new building. A great part of the land London stands on is the bed of a prehistoric Thames, which is rich in fossil remains. Stone-age implements are occasionally turned up, as well as bones of animals bearing evidence of having been killed by hunters of early times.

AMUSEMENTS

Harold Lloyd's advice on "Pullman Car Etiquette" is being published on the Met theater's screen today and tonight under the title of "Now or Never." It is a popular edition of Harold Lloyd's first three reel comedy telling the laugh-creating story of a young man who tries to keep a promise he made to his childhood sweetheart, to return for her on her eighteenth birthday. He starts on the journey in his own snappy sport model roadster, but is forced to give it up after puncturing a barn with it. The brake beams of a freight train supply him with thrilling and hazardous transportation and the audience with howling laughs.

Eventually he reaches the girl's town, only to find her at the depot preparing to come to see him. Without the consent of the child's parents, she is taking with her the small daughter of her employers. The baby's father is on the train and girl asks the boy to take the child in his car. Lloyd's efforts to amuse the precocious four-year old, to comply with her many wishes and to get her to sleep, and then, the next morning, to get her back into her clothes without having any pieces of apparel left over, afford some of the best comedy gags Lloyd has ever performed.

Mildred Davis, who retired from the screen after her marriage to Harold Lloyd, is the girl. Anna May Wilson, a most gifted young person of four years, is the child. Hal Roach and Fred Newmeyer directed "Now or Never" from a story by Sam Taylor.

Wisdom in Suffering

He is wise who at last sees in suffering only the light that it sheds on his soul; and whose eyes never rest on the shadow it casts upon those who have sent it towards him. And wiser still is the man to whom sorrow and joy not only bring increase of consciousness, but also the knowledge that something exists superior to consciousness even.—Maurice Maeterlinck.

Smiles

"You can usually tell whether a smile is sincere or not," explained a young lawyer whose hobby is psychology. "A smile that appears quickly and disappears abruptly is hypocritical and forced. Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. Rule Works Many Ways

Give a child his first chance with a folding two-foot rule, and with it he discovers a tent, fishing pole, sword, house, bridge, hat, arch, mop, fence, hatchet, window frame and half the letters of the alphabet. That is, of course, in the first few minutes. Later on he discovers more things.—Kansas City Star.

Avon River of Death

The Avon river, made famous by Shakespeare, has been called the "river of death," because of the great amount of sewage from the town of Coventry. Plant life has ceased to grow in it, fish have died and all vegetation along the bank is disappearing.

When Roles Were Reversed

During the Saturnalia festivals, held yearly in December in ancient Rome in honor of the god Saturn, the slaves dressed in their masters' clothes while the masters donned the slaves' garments and waited upon their slaves.

Chinese First Paper Makers

China monopolized the art of paper making for about 800 years, until the secret was learned from her by the Arabs, who improved upon the Chinese process by using linen or cotton rags instead of mulberry bark.

It's Hard to Beat Regular Interest

Most men of means are glad to get 5% interest on their private capital.

You may say that is true because they have plenty of money, but it is more often the reason why they have plenty of money.

The longer one lives the more he or she realizes it is hard to beat regular interest. Brunson Certificates, paying 5 per cent. compounded semi-annually, are an ideal form of savings investment.

ANNOUNCE REGULAR TRANS-CONTINENTAL TELEPHONE SERVICE

Washington, March 4.—(U. P.)—With successful demonstration of their perfected process of sending photographs across the continent by wire, officials of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. today announced the inauguration of the regular trans-continental telephone service beginning April 1.

"Within the last few months our experts have developed photo telegraphing to such perfection that transmitted pictures can hardly be told from the originals," J. D. Ellsworth, assistant vice president of the A. T. and T., said. "Wednesday we will wire pictures of the inauguration to San Francisco, Chicago and New York, so that they will appear in newspapers there a little more than an hour after President Coolidge begins his address.

"These demonstrations, we believe will demonstrate the feasibility of telephotography and we hope to start regular service in another month. It is probable that at first we will charge $50 to transmit a picture from New York to Chicago and $100 from New York to the coast."

NEW CHAMPION

Young Jake Schaefer Wins World's Balk Line Billiard Title Defeating Willie Hoppe 400 to 173.

Chicago, March 4.—(U. P.)—The name of Schaefer once more heads the list of the world's greatest billiard players.

Young Jake Schaefer, son of the great former champion, and himself a former holder of the world's balk line billiard championship, defeated Willie Hoppe, the "champion of champions," 400 to 173. The victory left his record in this annual tournament without the stain of defeat and crowned him champion.

Hoppe made a gallant fight, but Schaefer was "right" and went out in eight innings, averaging 50 billiards an inning. In his last inning he went through to 400 with an unfinished run of 296.

Hoppe had suffered two previous defeats and finished fourth in the list of six starters.

The final standing:

Player	Won	Lost	Pct.
Schaefer	5	0	1.000
Horemans	4	1	.800
Hagenlacher	3	2	.600
Hoppe	2	3	.400
Cochran	1	4	.200
Suzuki	0	5	.000

HAPPENINGS IN OUR STATE

Taken Direct From the Wires by Correspondents of the United States Press Association.

(United Press)

Toledo, March 6—Mystery surrounds an explosion which wrecked the home of Nina Perry and broke windows for blocks around here early today. The family escaped unhurt. There is no gas in the house, which baffles police.

Warren, March 6—Sixty-one men indicted in the Niles Klan riots of November 1, will go to trial beginning March 16. Prosecutor W. W. Pierson said today.
